POLITICAL GIANTS WERE REQUESTED TO USE INFLUENCE AGAINST HEARING

SULZER SOUGHT TO BLOCK TRIAL

Declaration of the Son of Financier
Thomas Ryan.

APPEARS AS WITNESS AT ALBANY

Says the Governor Attempted to Obtain the Influence of Senator Root and of Republican Leader Barnes to Prevent the Trial of His Impeachment—Testimony Stricken Out by Vote of the Court.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Governor William Sulzer attempted to obtain the influence of United States Senator Elihu Root and of William Barnes, chairman of the Republican state committee, to prevent the trial of his impeachment, according to testimony adduced at the trial, although the testimony was subsequently stricken out by vote of the court.

Allan Ryan, a son of Thomas F. Ryan, a New York financier, gave the testimony. It was brought out through the testimony of Ignatius V. McGlone, secretary of the elder Ryan, that Governor Sulzer was the recipient of a $10,000 cash campaign contribution from the Ryans which was not reported in the governor's sworn campaign statement.

"Tell your father I am the same old Bill," young Ryan said the governor said to him over the telephone in asking for the contribution.

Ryan was called to the stand after the attorneys for the impeachment managers had obtained permission to reopen their case, which they announced as complete when court adjourned last Thursday.

The witness said that just a week before the trial of impeachment began he had seen Governor Sulzer in the latter's office in New York. "He asked me," testified the financier's son, "to go to Washington and see Senator Root and request him to see William Barnes and get him to endeavor to have the Republican members of this body to vote that this court had no right to try him and impeach him."

It was in the face of repeated objections by counsel for the defense, who several times halted him as he was about to answer, that Ryan was permitted to tell of his conversations with the governor. Judge Cullen with held a final ruling on their objections.

As soon as the testimony fell from his lips, counsel for Governor Sulzer held a hurried conference and Attorney D. Cady Herrick demanded that the testimony be stricken out on the ground that it was incompetent.

"The testimony is stricken out," said Presiding Judge Cullen.

Senator Elton R. Brown, Republican leader in the senate, demanded a vote on the ruling. The presiding judge was sustained by a vote of 32 to 18.

Edward P. Meany, attorney for the New York Telephone company, testified that he had "loaned" the governor $10,000 in cash within a week or 10 days after his nomination. Meany said that he had made the contribution in cash because he did not wish it to be known, for fear that the gift might be "misconstrued." He added that the governor had promised to pay it back to him whenever he could.

STORM WIPES ALASKA CITY OFF THE MAP

NOME HARD HIT BY STORM

Alaskan Town All but Wrecked and Her People in Want.

Nome, Alaska, Oct. 7.—Nome has been almost destroyed by a storm. All the south side of Front street is gone. Two miles of territory next to the sea was devastated. No lives were lost. The storm was the worst ever known here. Men and women worked all night in the icy water to save their household effects. The electric light plant was wrecked and telephone service cut off. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000. There will be much suffering and outside help will be required. Winter is at hand and it will be impossible to get in supplies needed.

WILSON JUMPING INTO THE FRAY

WOULD PUSH CURRENCY BILL

President Begins Conference With Democratic Senators.

Washington, Oct. 7.—President Wilson began conferences today with Democratic senators looking to the acceleration of the administration currency bill's progress through the senate.

At the White House it was stated that the president would feel justified in using every legitimate means to forward the progress of the bill toward the statute books before the end of the present session.

Significant in the developments on the situation were remarks which the president made to callers to the effect that objections to the administration bill proceeded chiefly from big bankers because they feared that the control of the country's financial system would be taken from their hands by the new measure.

At Calumet, Mich., Guy Wilkins, mining company clerk, was shot from ambush and seriously wounded.

President Wilson Puts His Name to Tariff Bill
And Predicts the Currency Measure Will Soon Pass.

When President Woodrow Wilson signed the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill at 9:10 p. m. on Oct. 3 the country was given the second low tariff measure in seventy-five years. The president said the work of his party was now only half done and that the currency reform bill, he hoped, would soon be passed. President Wilson is here shown as he looked seated at his desk, pen in hand.

CONVENTION MUST HAVE THE LAST SAY

AS CUMMINS VIEWS IT

Control of Committee Over Seating of Delegates Should Be Abolished.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Senator Cummins outlined in part the reform plans of the conciliation committee of the Republicans and Progressives, which hopes to bring about the holding of a national convention early in 1914. The change of the representation of southern states in the national convention is a secondary matter in the program of the committee. With the added support of many Republican leaders who did not participate in the get-together conference in Chicago last spring, the committee will insist that the control of the Republican national committee over the seating of delegates in a national convention be abolished, and that the convention itself rule on delegates.

SURPRISE GIVEN A SMOOTH RASCAL

HIGHWAYMAN CAPTURED

United States Soldiers Land One of the Principals in Daring Holdup. Stonington, Conn., Oct. 7.—One of the highwaymen who robbed Cashier Charles Koelb of about $10,000 while he was on his way from the First National bank to the American Velvet company's mill, and which amount was later recovered, was captured by a detachment of United States soldiers. Twelve companies from Fort Wright and Fort Terry were engaged in maneuvers in this vicinity, and Colonel Davis quickly dispatched several of the men to aid in the search for the pair of desperadoes as soon as he heard of the daring holdup. The robber is about 30 years old, apparently a German and a stranger in this place.

NECK BROKEN, LIVES

Sandusky, O., Oct. 7.—Oliver Baker, who broke his neck while diving at Ruggles lake last summer, is so far recovered that he may soon be taken to his home in Columbus. Physicians say that in time he may be able to walk without the use of the braces now used to support his neck.

WHAT AN INQUIRY REVEALED

Telegrams Received From Various Parts of the Country Deny That Crimes Mentioned in the Spencer Revelations Had Ever Been Committed—Police Convinced, However, the Suspect Murdered the Dancer.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—After hours of investigation, Chicago detectives are willing to believe that Henry Spencer, self-confessed slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat and nearly a score of others, is one of the most brilliantly entertaining liars with whom the police have come in contact within a long time. In fact, as one of the sleuths expressed it, "the confession bids fair to go down in the police records as the dream of an opium fiend."

The net result of the police activity was to establish a fairly good case against Spencer as the murderer of the tango teacher, who was lured to the country by the promise of a class at Wayne and there shot to death on the railroad tracks, near the town west of Chicago, and her body left on the tracks for mutilation by a freight train.

A string of messenger boys with telegrams from chiefs of detectives and sheriffs in various sections of the country, denying that crimes in the Spencer "confession" had ever been committed, visited Chief of Detectives John J. Halpin and exploded piecemeal the long story that the prisoner had narrated.

"There is absolutely no doubt that Spencer murdered Mrs. Rexroat," said the chief of detectives. "In his confession he has gone into minute details of that affair."

Positive identification of Spencer as the man who accompanied Mrs. Rexroat to several cafes the night before her murder was made by a lawyer named Carl White.

Spencer's drawing voice, the voice supposed to have lured Mrs. Rexroat to her death, was identified by Mrs. Sadie Johnson, with whom Mrs. Rexroat lodged, as the voice she had heard over the telephone the night of the murder.

Among the evidence obtained to discredit some of Spencer's other admissions was the fact, learned from the Joliet penitentiary records, that he was in prison at the time when the murder of Policemen Devine and Pennell occurred. The record also shows that he was in Joliet at the time Fannie Thompson was murdered.

Authorities at Gosport, N. Y., are investigating the story that Spencer had killed a former maid of Miss Helen Gould in the woods near Fort Montgomery, and said there was no record of such a case. From Delavan Lake, Wis., the chief of police wired that no woman had been murdered at that place as described by Spencer.

HUTCHISON FAVORS DIVORCE FOR DRINK

SCIENTIST ON ALCOHOLISM

Would Make Drunkenness Sufficient Cause For Divorce.

London, Oct. 7.—Drunkenness should be made a sufficient cause for prompt divorce, said Dr. Woods Hutchinson, in the course of his lecture on "Human Misfits," delivered before the national council of morals, of which the Archbishop of Canterbury is the head. Dr. Hutchinson told of the effects of alcohol on the descendants of those who indulge in it. In instances the case of an alcoholic woman, two-thirds of whose 700 descendants became public charges while of the 600 descendants of the same father and a woman who was not alcoholic, only five became public charges.

PLATTER CLEARED UP BY YUAN SHI KAI IN CHINESE ELECTION

Peking, Oct. 7.—After 12 hours of balloting, Provisional President Yuan Shih Kai was elected the first president of the Chinese republic. He received 507 votes, a majority of the national assembly. General Li Yuan Heng, his nearest rival, received 179 votes. Eighteen other candidates, including Dr. Sun Yat Sen and Wu Ting Fang, received scattering votes.

Two Step In Front of Train. Coshocton, O., Oct. 7.—Stepping from the path of a westbound Pennsylvania railroad freight train to the track for eastbound trains, Henry Starkey and T. S. Mingus, bridge carpenters, employed on the bridge at Tyndal, were struck by a fast passenger train and killed.

$15,000 FOR DEFENSE

Kenton, O., Oct. 7.—The Hardin County Law Enforcement league has been organized by the dry forces that voted the county dry a few days ago by 195 majority. It is planned to raise a fund of $15,000 with which to prosecute law violators and officials whom the league believes lax in enforcement of the Rose law.

Dr. and Mrs. Willard Cockerill (nee Ethel Coffman) were given a great belling at the home of Dr. Cockerill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cockerill, south of town, Saturday night. They arrived on the evening train, which was late, and had not finished supper when thirty relatives and friends arrived and began an old-fashioned belling serenade.

The evening wound up in delightful sociability and a shower of good wishes for the young couple.

The Golden Glow

These golden October days—the afterglow of summer before it fades into the gloom of winter—offer great temptation, even beyond the lure of the enticing spring zephyrs. For spring heralds the summer; coaxes out the buds and forecasts months of out-door life; but autumn, with all its vivid beauty, rings the death knell of verdure and flowers and ushers in grey skies and cold winds.

These October days—the most perfect of the year, are nature's rarest gift and it is the wise man and the wise woman who drinks in the tonic of atmosphere and sunshine and lives out-doors these days.

The lover of nature does not need to leave Fayette and its neighboring counties to find autumn in as beautiful settings as an artist could desire. For those whose tastes lie in quiet pastoral scenes, in broad level fields, winding streams and forests of changing colors, there are many miles of road branching out from our county seat and each revealing beauties undreamed of before the early frost had touched the landscape.

South of Fayette, in the hills of Ross and Highland counties, the full glory of autumn is sketched in a wonderful panorama. Hillsides blaze with color and rise as great wooded mountains in which blend soft greens, olives and maroons with touches of brilliant scarlet and gold. They form gorgeous back-grounds for fertile valleys, and piles of yellow corn heaped amid the "fodder in the shock."

Away in the distance, higher hills are darkly outlined against the sky and over all rests the mellow glow and the purple shadows that come only with the Indian summer.

It is worth some trouble to see the glory of the hills of Ross and Highland county this fall, for nature has been more than commonly lavish with her colors.

Two trips of more than mere scenic interest, although they cover scenery, picturesque and beautiful beyond the ordinary, are those to Serpent Mound, in Adams county, and to Ft. Ancient below Wilmington. Hundreds of motorists have visited these historic spots this summer, but it is in the autumn that these trips are georgeous beyond the telling.

Serpent Mound is one of the most interesting curiosities of Ohio. As its name indicates, it is a huge mound, coiling, serpent shape, on a bluff 100 feet above the water. Its mouth is open and in it an egg-shaped mound, the serpent supposed to be swallowing the egg. The mound is thickly covered with sod and rises probably five feet above the ground. It is built of soil quite different from the surrounding soil and supposed to have been carried from some sacred spot. There is little doubt that it was raised for purposes of worship by the Mound Builders, 3,000 years ago.

After all these years the great green serpent coils itself on the edge of the precipice and is the magnet which draws visitors from all over the world to view the beautiful spot and speculate upon the ancient people whose mode of worship led to its formation.

Hardly less interesting is Ft. Ancient, although its history is shrouded in uncertainty. Ten or twelve acres of beautiful park are enclosed within breastworks of earth, covered with grass and surmounted by trees, whose mammoth trunks indicate that they are the growth of centuries. On one side a steep embankment, practically impossible to scale, leads down to the Miami river. The scene of the silver river winding through valleys and hills is very beautiful and widely noted.

Another attraction of this section of Ohio is "Copperas Mountain", below Bainbridge on the way to Chillicothe.

Each of Us Is a Living Monument of Our Thoughts

By Mrs. MARY E. T. CHAPIN of New York, Advocate of the New Thought

MOST PEOPLE DO NOT DREAM THEY HAVE THEMSELVES TO THANK FOR EVERYTHING THAT COMES TO THEM. EACH OF US IS THE LIVING MONUMENT OF OUR THOUGHTS.

We are not what we eat, nor yet what we read. We are WHAT WE THINK. A man who is down and out has been thinking down and out thoughts; has been misusing the God given power of his own mind and opening the same mind to thoughts of failure.

If he had put the same amount of thought on the other side of the picture the result would have been quite as different. We CAN THINK CONSTRUCTIVE THOUGHTS, and the mind holds the picture and becomes a battery, drawing to it the power that is needed to visualize the conditions of success we picture; also we can hold destructive thoughts, and the same battery DRAWS TO ITSELF THE DESTRUCTIVE FORCES that will bring about the very condition it dreads.

Again, one may use the example of a dark room. It is dark until one touches the right button, and then the place is flooded with light. I know of no simile better for the human mind. It is DARK UNTIL IT GETS THE HIGHER CONNECTION that makes of it a changed place.

The way to eliminate failure and misfortune is to begin with the very young child and bring it up without a thought of fear. There are those who think fear should be taught to protect a child from things that would injure it.

The truth is, nothing would injure it if we did not expect to be injured by it. Even wild animals that we think are most savage would be entirely ROBBED OF THEIR CRUELTY IF WE COULD CHANGE OUR FEELING TOWARD THEM.

Poetry For Today

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY.

When confronted by a crisis
That demands your instant care,
Would you know what my advice is?
Seize that crisis by the hair!
Then within your cellar lock it
And go sleep the night away;
For a crisis, if you knock it,
Will be quite polite next day!

When an obstacle confronts you
That you cannot get around;
When it threatens quick to shunt you
Most completely off the ground,
Then inhale your head and lungs full,
Blow on it for all you're worth
And that obstacle so dreadful
Will be wafted off the earth!

When you meet a fierce dilemma
Grimly standing in your path,
Sternly say to it: "Whoa, Emma!"
And ignore its seeming wrath.
Next your halter take and pitch it
Over that dilemma's horn;
To your plow then you may hitch
When you go to plow your corn!"

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

December 28, 1817.

Allow me on behalf of this community, to thank "Lovejoy" through the Herald for his interesting letter from Africa. We hope to hear often from him. He manifests much the same spirit in Africa that he did while near Richmond, when he was a member of the First Ohio cavalry, during the Rebellion. I wonder if the members of the First Ohio cavalry recognize in "Lovejoy" the chap who so daringly dashed upon the breastworks at Richmond, and captured the fine train and presented it to the Bloomingburg academy.

The firm of Ely and Stimson has been dissolved and reorganized, under the name of Ely and Stimson Brothers. The members of the old firm, J. F. Ely and A. M. Stimson, continue in the new, and have associated with them Charles M. Stimson who has been in their employ for several years past as bookkeeper and who is a young man of superior business qualifications.

Frank Robinson, Edwin Light, Aus Hegler and several other of our young men who are attending school at Delaware, were home during the holidays, having a good time.

We are indebted to our friend, P. L. Harper, of Forrest City, Mo., for a package of "buffalo steak" which we found in excellent condition and most delicious to the taste. We hope he may live to enjoy the luxury of buffalo meat for a hundred years to come, and send us a good steak from it every year.

The way to eliminate failure and misfortune is to begin with the very young child and bring it up without a thought of fear. There are those who think fear should be taught to protect a child from things that would injure it.

The truth is, nothing would injure it if we did not expect to be injured by it. Even wild animals that we think are most savage would be entirely ROBBED OF THEIR CRUELTY IF WE COULD CHANGE OUR FEELING TOWARD THEM.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

An effort is being made by the Chicago post office authorities to complete new arrangements to handle the parcel post Christmas mail. Plans for renting large warerooms near the different railway stations are under way. This business has grown from 1,000,000 packages handled by the Chicago office last January to more than 6,000,000 per month. The Xmas trade is expected to furnish 50,000,000 packages and provision is being made for that many.

Kate Douglas Wiggin's next story, "The Story of Waitstill Baxter", has a Maine setting, and is heralded by her publishers, Houghton, Mifflin Co., as a novel of American life strong in Puritan severity.

When the gunboat Yorktown sailed San Francisco Saturday from Central American waters she was short of 30 of her rather small crew who had deserted at various ports. The Yorktown is the first warship to enter the Panama canal.

Inhabitants of New York City eat nearly $645,000,000 of various food stuffs a year and 12,000 grocery dealers and delicatessen merchants supply the demand. Practically all the imported food consumed in the U. S. comes through New York and are handled by commissioners. A large per cent of the dealers in sweets and spices make New York their headquarters and send out products to the country in enormous volumes.

Few people realize that the moving picture business is collecting more money throughout the world than the automobile industry. A moving picture is good without translation and has just as good sale in South America and Australia as in France and Germany. The making of a picture film is sometimes a serious undertaking. "Quo Vadis," it is said cost $80,000. Then it was manifolded into 400 copies of 8,000 feet each and sold for 25 cents a foot or $800,000. To put the drama of "Atlantis" into moving pictures the makers chartered a steamer of 12,000 tons and sent it to Ireland with a crew and company of 100 to produce a picture at a cost of $225,000. To put "Forbes-Robinson" as "Hamlet" on the film cost at least 10 times what it cost to ever stage any "Hamlet" ever presented. The makers paid $75,000 for the use of a castle and tae costumes for 400 people were enormous, but the makers sold 3,000,000 ft. at 25 cents per foot.

An early day printing press made in Pittsfield, Mass., and set up in Canaan, Conn., and could print two pages of an eight column paper, was described at the Printer's Society meeting not long ago at Canaan. Today many presses print the whole of a 16 page newspaper at once and turn the papers out pasted and folded at the rate of 1000 per minute. On this old press the forms—the pages of type are called—ran under a cylinder, dropped six inches and ran back under the cylinder, then rose to their former level, something strange, as the operator of a modern press would tell us. Some one has described his first sight of this press. "As he drew near the newspaper office he heard a noise like a thrashing machine. Then he caught sight of a white horse in a treadmill from which a belt ran up to the second story office room. There this press with its combination of perpendicular and horizontal motions was at work.

ECZEMA OF THE SCALP.

After 20 Years Suffering Saxo Salve Brings Relief.

"For 20 years I suffered with dry eczema of the scalp during which time I had tried every so called eczema remedy on the market without benefit. At last I saw Saxo Salve advertised and decided to try it and after using one tube, for the first time in 20 years I am free from that terrible itching and scaly dandruff. I wish every one suffering from eczema or other skin troubles only knew what a wonderful remedy Saxo Salve is."—T. F. Thompson, Hopkinsville, Ky.

MEEKISON ON STAND

Admits Politicians Sought to Prevent Referendum On Tax Acts.

Cleveland, Oct. 7.—C. C. Meekison, Henry county auditor, who with J. D. Cargould, Akron politician, is being tried on charges of attempting to enter the offices of the Ohio Equity association to steal referendum petitions, admitted that politicians of the state had made plans to prevent votes being taken on the Warrens and Kilpatrick taxation laws. Meetings of politicians were held in Columbus, Cincinnati, and Cleveland, and although an organization was formed to stifle referendums, Meekison said no illegitimate means were contemplated.

That E. D. Eckert, legislative representative of the Toledo Bull-Light company, was trying to entangle him was the contention of Meekison, who testified that Eckert had offered him a key to the Equity association's offices. Secretary C. S. Gongwer of the Equity association, which is responsible for the prosecution of Meekison and Cargould, said he knew that Eckert had a key to the association's offices to give to Meekison. Meekison said he refused to accept it.

BRYAN RULES AGAINST THAW AND CASE MAY GO OVERBOARD

SENATE MAY AIR THE THAW CASE

Fugitive's Attorneys Object to Ruling of Secretary Bryan.

SAY ENGLAND IS INTERESTED

London Said to Have Asked the Canadian Government For Light On the Deportation Proceedings—Thaw To Be Granted Time by the New Hampshire Governor to Meet Any New Phase of the Case That May Arise.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 7.—T. R. E. McInnes, one of the Canadian attorneys on the staff of Harry K. Thaw, is in the city, and when informed that Secretary Bryan would not take up the case with England, said that the matter would be taken to the floor of the United States senate. He stated further that the British government had already of its own volition asked for an explanation from the Canadian government.

Two more sets of briefs in behalf of Thaw were filed with the secretary of state. There seems to be a strong suspicion among several of Thaw's lawyers that Jerome is to inject some new move into the extradition proceedings, possibly setting up entirely new grounds for extradition.

In this event attorneys for Thaw are virtually promised equal courtesy with opposing counsel by the governor in the matter of additional time to meet any new phase of the case which may arise. It appears that the day of final decision by the governor is put quite considerably into the future.

The points in the fugitive's behalf set up by Mr. Stone in his brief are that the requisition is not in accordance with the provisions of the rules fixed by the governor of New Hampshire, that an insane person can not commit a crime, that a lunatic can not be extradited, and can not be guilty of a crime, and that the application is not made in good faith.

Thaw has been very insistent that he be clearly stated that he is not in sympathy with or in any way connected with the rumored move to bring about a disbarment of Jerome for alleged sharp practices at the hearing before the governor in this city, when he asserted that an indictment had been found.

With relation to the action of the state department in passing up the request of the Thaw counsel for international proceedings, William A. Stone gave out the following statement:

Secretary Bryan decides that it is not a violation of the treaties between the United States and the British government and Canada to seize an American citizen at 7 o'clock in the morning and catapult him into Vermont by automobile and drop him across the line at a remote place, without previous notice or sustenance, because it is not stated in any of the treaties that it should not be done. The Canadian immigration law was passed in 1910. It provides that citizens of Canada ordered deported by an immigration board of inquiry may appeal to the Canadian courts. Mr. Thaw had appealed to the Canadian court from the order of the immigration board deporting him. Mr. Bryan made a mistake in refusing to make inquiry of the British ambassador concerning the treatment of citizen Thaw and his refusal will likely result in congressional inquiry.

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny—unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason. Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish once, as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use

Some Circulation!

YOU wouldn't believe it—no one does until he learns by actual experience that the circulation of hot air produced by the "little furnace" in the Estate Hot Storm is as powerful as you find in the ordinary furnace.

But just try to hold your hand over the discharge ports of an Estate Hot Storm when it's fired up full, and you'll be quickly convinced.

Estate Hot Storm

— the heating stove with a "little furnace" in it

Now's like a furnace because it's built like one. Air drawn into the "little furnace" through pipes on both sides of the stove, is heated to a very high temperature, and then discharged from the top of the stove, either into the room in which the stove sits, or into a pipe to conduct the heat to the upper floor.

This distinctive feature of the Estate Hot Storm's construction should be reason enough for you to give this stove the preference, but there are other reasons almost throughout the life of the stove, the Estate Hot Blast Attachment gets out of the fire every atom of heat that's in it; the Estate Double Strength Single Fire Pot, the Estate Patented Anti-Buckling Ring, etc., all contribute to make the Estate Hot Storm the strongest, longest-lived, most powerful and economical heater that has ever been built.

Make up your mind to "Own an Estate" this season and have a "little furnace" in it. We'll be glad to explain the construction to you at any time.

THURSDAY THE BIG DAY EXPECT LARGE CROWD TO ATTEND GALA EVENT

Arrangements Nearing Completion
For the Farmers' Picnic to be Held at the Fair Grounds October 9th.

AN ALL DAY PROGRAM HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Speakers of Note Will Have Important Message for Every Tiller of the Soil—Splendid Racing Program Has Been Arranged for Morning and Afternoon.

Thursday of this week is the day of the farmers' big picnic, which is to be a gala event and will be held on the fair grounds. The committees in charge of the various departments have been working overtime to have their respective departments up to the high standard desired.

Each day witnesses the booking of some new attraction which will add to the interest and enjoyment of the day, and preparations are under way to entertain the crowds from morning until night, and if the weather permits hundreds of persons are expected to enjoy dinner in genuine picnic fashion on the grounds.

A crowd of several thousand people is expected to attend the event if the Weather Man behaves, and the indications are that he will continue the summer-like weather until after the big picnic.

Prof. Price, dean of the College of Agriculture, and Prof. Graham, head of the Agricultural Extension School, with interesting agricultural exhibits will be here with a message to every tiller of the soil. Walter E. McCoy, a former Fayette county boy, now of Greensburg, Indiana, will be another one who will have a message of importance for Fayette farmers. He will bring with him the champion 10 ears of corn raised last year.

The racing program will be one of the most interesting offered to Fayette citizens this season. Two of the races will take place in the forenoon. The morning program will start at nine o'clock, and the morning races will start at 10:30 o'clock.

As the picnic comes just after the farmers have finished their corn cutting and wheat sowing, and just before corn husking, most farmers will be in a position to attend the last great out-of-doors event of the season, and enjoy a genuine picnic and a day of rest.

KILLED BY CAR INTERMENT HERE

Frank Pattison, Colored, Found Along Ohio Electric Track in Columbus, and Supposition is That He Fell From Car and Was Killed—Remains Brought to Home of Father.

Frank Pattison, colored, aged 52, a former resident of this city, was killed in Columbus sometime Sunday night, supposedly by falling from an Ohio Electric car or being knocked from the track and alighting on the ground far below, as the remains were found under the trestle at Harlow and Mound streets.

It was sometime before the remains could be identified, but a colored woman residing in the neighborhood finally established the man's identity and arrangements were at once made to ship the body to his father, Biley Pattison, who resides in the French Flats across from the D. T. & I. depot.

The remains arrived Monday evening and interment will be made tomorrow in the Washington cemetery.

The man left this city two or three years ago and has since been employed in the B. & O. round house at Columbus. He was a member of the local colored K. of P. lodge, and members from the order escorted the remains to this city.

$20,000 DAMAGE CASE OPENS AGAIN

Tuesday morning the work of impaneling a jury to try the case of Frank M. Allen against T. T. Smith of Leesburg, commenced, and the big case will occupy the attention of the Common Pleas court for sometime. Judge Cyrus Newby, of Hillsboro, is on the bench.

The suit grows out of injuries sustained by the plaintiff when an auto, alleged to be the Smith machine, frightened the horse driven by Mr. Allen, and he was thrown out and badly crippled. The accident occurred between this city and Staunton.

Damages in the sum of $20,000 is the amount asked by the plaintiff. The case was tried in the local courts a year or more ago, and the jury disagreed.

Sanderson and Logan are attorneys for the plaintiff, and Wilson and McBride, of Hillsboro, and Jones, Post and Reid are attorneys for the defendant.

TUDOR CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

F. M. Kisling Files Affidavit Against Paul Tudor Charging Him With Burglarizing His Store Last Week—Tudor in County Jail and Still Refuses to Tell Straight Story of Mysterious Shooting.

Mr. F. M. Kisling, of Good Hope, whose general store was burglarized one night last week, came to this city Tuesday morning and filed an affidavit against Paul Tudor, charging him with burglary and larceny.

Tudor is the man who was mysteriously shot while with a companion some two miles south of this city, and who is now in the county jail confined to his bed suffering from an ugly bullet wound in his shoulder.

The man was transferred to the county jail Sunday, in order to insure his safe keeping. He is still suffering intensely from the wound and is not yet out of danger, although it is thought he will recover.

Mr. Kisling filed the affidavit against the man because of the fact that the fellow has told a story that is not at all clear, and because of the fact that part of his stolen goods were found in a sack near the spot where Tudor was wounded by his companion. Owing to the man's past record and the circumstances surrounding the case, there is every reason to believe that he knows something about the Good Hope burglary and two or three similar tricks in Greenfield.

Tudor still refuses to make known the name of the man who was with him, but says he does not know who the fellow was, and that he had met him the morning of the day in which the fellow tried to kill him.

IS AN END TO BLIND RELIEF

Busty Auditor Henkle is in receipt of a letter from the Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Works dealing with the blind relief item which has been causing considerable contention throughout the country.

The interpretation of the law must be made to the same Judge, who in turn files a copy of the application with the Board appointed to look after the matter.

Test suit may be filed to clearly establish the provisions of the law, indications are that no more relief can be furnished earlier than October 1, 1914.

As a result of the mix-up the blind will be compelled to await the unrolling of the red tape surrounding the matter.

SPLENDID ADDRESS TO YOUNG PEOPLE

Sunday night at the Grace M. C. church, Secretary Zaner of the Y. M. C. A. gave a very helpful talk in the Epworth League on the subject of "Choosing Chums: Its Influence on Life, Character and Destiny." With ten years of experience in dealing with men and boys in various cities and under all kinds of conditions, he had a message teeming with suggestions of helpfulness for those who need to be guided into the proper selection of a companion or chum. We quote a few excerpts from his talk.

"A chum will either be the making or unmaking of any young man. Thousands each year are going to early graves because of bad chums."

"Each year hundreds of boys and girls throughout the country are being sent to reformatories and penal institutions because of bad companions."

"Entirely too many people are standing by and permitting our good boys and girls to make companions of those unfit for them, knowing they will ruin them in time. Too long have the lips of parents and friends kept silence. We must assist our boys and girls in finding the kind of chums and companions that will contribute to their lives, character, poise and stamina."

"A timely word has saved many a boy and girl."

IS IN CIRCLEVILLE TO GIVE TESTIMONY

Chief of Police F. M. McCoy was called to Circleville Tuesday morning to testify in the case of Ohio against Virgil Dunton, the young man who was captured in this city after disposing of a horse he is alleged to have stolen from George Curry of near New Holland.

Owing to the prominence of the young man the affair created considerable surprise at the time.

Dunton is said to have stolen the horse to obtain money with which to marry a girl residing near New Holland, and when arrested here he had several pieces of jewelry in his pockets. He did not deny his guilt.

MORE CAR SHOPS FOR CHILLICOTHE

If present plans are carried out the C. H. & D. car shops at Lima and the shops at Ivorydale, will soon be moved to Chillicothe. The Zanesville shops may also be moved there, and located on the famous Kite track which was purchased by the B. & O. last spring.

If the change is made some 200 more mechanics will be necessary, and most of them will move to Chillicothe from the towns where the shops are now located.

Dates of reunions, picnics and other like events will be carried in this column free of charge.

The threatened rain did not interfere with the game or dampen the enthusiasm of forty thousand and fans who assembled to witness the initial game.

The shrewd Connie Mack sent in Chief Bender as his choice and Manager McGraw used first, Rube Marquard who was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning and was relieved by Tesreau, and then Tesreau by Crandall, making three pitchers for Mugsy in the first game.

Merkle scored the first run in the series.

The mighty Baker in the fifth inning knocked a home run, with Collins on the base.

Divorce Granted in Common Pleas

Judge Carpenter Monday afternoon granted a divorce to A. E. McHenry from Gertrude McHenry, on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. The couple were married November 21, 1911.

Hartman Theater

George Evans and his Honey Bay Minstrels will be the attraction at the Hartman theater, Columbus, Friday and Saturday, October 17-18th with a Saturday matinee. For this season the little minstrel star promises a production far superior to any he has yet offered. The opening scene or "First Part" as it is called, shows several transformations before the full setting is revealed. Evans has happily chosen a title for this portion of the new program from one of his past successes and calls it "The Good Old Summer Time." The curtain rises on a picture of "Summer Time in Japan" with suitable music and surprises fitting the subject, then follows a change to "Summer Time in Hawaii," with the musical characteristics of that clime in evidence, the scene dissolves them into the full stage picture of "Summer Time in Dixie" with the big company scattered about the terraced lawn of an old Southern mansion. The striking corps of the production is one of which Mr. Evans is exceedingly proud and numbers amongst its soloists Vaughn, Comfort, James, Meehan, Wm. H. Thompson, Joseph, Gillese, Carl Fletcher, Lindeman and a choir of trained vocalists.

MYSTERY HOW IT HAPPENED

EXORBITANT PRICES OBTAINED FOR SEATS

World's Series Tickets In Hands of Speculators.

New York, Oct. 7.—It was demonstrated to the satisfaction of the national baseball commission and the New York club that many reserved seat tickets for the world's series have fallen into the hands of speculators. There was also material evidence that some one possibly had imposed upon President H. N. Hemstead and Secretary Foster of the Giants by securing blocks of seats which were offered for sale at exorbitant prices. The speculators who stated they expected to obtain a supply of seats made good their promise.

It remained for James E. Gaffney, president of the Boston National league club, to furnish tangible proof that the speculators had tickets which they were selling at an average of $17 each for the three games. Mr. Gaffney, according to his own statement, paid $700 for a total of 42 seats, which he had purchased from speculators after he had been informed at the offices of the New York club that no seats could be obtained there.

Chairman Hermann evidently was surprised when Mr. Gaffney lodged his complaint. Ban Johnson, president of the American league, another member of the commission, said that the Gaffney charges would be investigated and that the New York club would be asked to disclose the names of the persons who originally bought the tickets.

A canvas of the Longacre square district showed that speculators inside hotels and speculators outside had tickets to sell. From $15 to $10 was asked for a single ticket, and from $45 to $60 for three tickets for the three New York games. The cry was raised that politicians had secured the tickets from the New York club and had sold them to speculators.

VOLO, TWO-YEAR-OLD, TROTS MILE IN 2:04 2/5.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 7.—What is considered the greatest performance of a trotter on the American turf was that of Peter Volo in the last heat of the Futurity for two-year-olds here. He won in the sensational time of 2:04 2/5, lowering the world's record for a two-year-old trotter from 2:06 1/4, made by himself at Columbus last week. Volo won his race from a field of five starters in two straight heats.
